

THE LAUREN JAMISON COLLECTIVE

HIGH END LIFESTYLE ON A REAL LIFE BUDGET

ABOUT ME

I am a mother of two living in Greenville, South Carolina. I refer to myself as a Jane of many trades who fell backwards into renovating and flipping homes, and currently bring my followers along as we remodel our second flip home. My goal is to take the intimidating, break it down into easy understandable steps, and make everything from home renovation, to family vacation, to personal care - doable. I believe it's entirely possible to live a high end lifestyle, on a real life budget.
